

Dasho Tashi

Auditor General

Bhutan

Dasho Tashi is the Auditor General of Bhutan and Chairman, Accounting & Auditing Standards of Bhutan. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce from Delhi University, an advanced Diploma in Management Accounting from the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants, UK, and several diplomas from leadership programmes.

He first joined the Royal Audit Authority (SAI Bhutan) on 1st February 1994, working until 2009 as Auditor, Senior Auditor Deputy Chief Audit Officer and Assistant Auditor General, Performance Audit Division and Thematic Audit Division, as well as a period as Head of Human Resource and International Relations Division (2003-2006). He has also served as Chairman to the Bhutan Red Cross Society, the Board Audit Committee of the Central Bank of Bhutan (Royal Monetary Authority) and the Board Audit Committee - Natural Resources Development Corporation, and as Board Director to the Central Bank of Bhutan (Royal Monetary Authority), the Royal Society for Protection of Nature, Bhutan Agro Industries Limited and the Royal Institute of Management.

As the first IDI-certified training specialist from Bhutan's Royal Audit Authority, Tashi was involved in training, workshops and seminars to auditors from SAIs in the ASOSAI region and Australia from 2003 to 2009, and was a member of the project team who designed IDI's 'Learning for Impact' guidance booklet for SAIs around the globe.

GLOBAL SUMMIT

for Professionalisation of SAI Auditors

LONDON, UK AND ONLINE

14-15 November 2023